

On July 13, 2011, the Nebraska Supreme Court adopted the following amendments to Neb. Ct. R. § 3-106(F):

§ 3-106. Admission, pro hac vice, of attorneys of good moral character who are admitted to practice in another state, the District of Columbia, or a territory.

Any attorney of good moral character who is admitted to and engaged in the practice of law in the courts of record of another state, the District of Columbia, or a territory, having professional business in the courts of this state, may on motion to such court, in the discretion of the court, be admitted for the purpose of transacting such business. In order to be admitted, the applicant shall file with the court where the case is pending as soon as possible, but no later than the date the applicant files any pleading or appears personally, a motion, see Appendix B, with the following:

(F) A $250 ~~nonrefundable~~ fee payable to the Clerk of the Court. The Clerk of Court shall remit the fee to the State Treasurer for credit to the Nebraska Supreme Court's Counsel for Discipline Cash Fund not later than the 15th day of the month following the calendar month in which the fee was received. If the motion for pro hac vice admission is not granted, the Clerk of the Court shall refund the $250 fee. A court may, in its discretion and upon written motion, waive the fee for applicants who are representing governmental entities or providing pro bono representation of an indigent client.

Once the motion is granted, the applicant shall take and subscribe the oath required to be taken by individuals regularly practicing before the courts of this state as set forth in Neb. Rev. Stat. § 7-104 and the subscribed oath shall be filed by the applicant with the Clerk of the Court in which the applicant is appearing. The subscribed oath shall be made part of the court record. See Appendix B.
